

WHERE TO DISPOSE OF ITEMS IN THE SOUTHERN HIGHLANDS

Antique furniture: Timeless – the hospice shop store will pick up

Batteries: Aldi, RRC (*RRC = Resource Recovery Centre), Officeworks.

Bed linen & towels - unusable: Sheridan Outlet Bowral recycle

Clothes: St Vincent de Paul, The Salvation Army, Youth Off the Streets, The Smith Family, Lifeline, Anglicare, Save the Children, Hospice Shop, Father Chris Riley. There are clothing bins behind St Vincent de Paul in Bowral and Mittagong and opposite Highlands Marketplace main entrance.

Clothes – unusable Moss Vale tip now have recycling bins for unusable clothing.

Computers and cables: Officeworks

Doilies & lace tablecloths: Blue Wren Collective (FB) - Lisa will buy

Electrical appliances: Salvo's now take these

Furniture: Salvo's call 13 72 58.

Gas bottles: RRC

Glasses - reading and sun: Spec Savers and other Optometrists

Lights and globes: RRC

Mattresses with springs: RRC - $49.50 each.

Metal/steel: RRC free

Mobile phones: Officeworks, Telstra, Optus, Vodafone stores

Oils: RRC (up to 20 litres)

Paint: RRC (up to 20 litres)

Pens & Textas: Officeworks

Plant pots: Bunnings & Native Grace

Polystyrene: RRC

Power Tools: RRC

Printer cartridges: Officeworks

Shoes: unusable Rebel

Smoke alarms: RRC

TV's: RRC

X-Rays: RRC or some medical centres